2. General Provisions

- 2.1. These GPT apply to any legal relationship between the Bank and the Client.
- 2.2. In addition to the GPT, the legal relations between the Bank and the Client related to the provision of the Services are governed by the Applicable Law, the relevant Provisions of Service, Service Agreements and Rates & Fees.
- 2.3. The GPT govern legal relations between the Bank and the Client related to the provision of the Services, insofar as the Provisions of Service related to the provision of the Service do not state otherwise. In the event of a conflict between the GPT and the Provisions of Service, the relevant Provisions of Service shall apply.
- 2.4. The GPT and the Provisions of Service govern the legal relations between the Bank and the Client related to the provision of the Service, insofar as the Service Agreement that regulates the provision of the respective Service does not state otherwise. Unless otherwise specified in the GPT, in the event of a conflict between GPT or the Provisions of Service and the Service Agreement, the Service Agreement shall apply.
- 2.5. The Bank provides an opportunity to get acquainted with GPT at Client Service Locations and place them on the Bank's website and in PNB Internetbanka.
- 2.6. GPT in Russian and English shall be deemed as unofficial translations of GPT from Latvian. In the event of contradictions between the text of GPT in Latvian and in another language, GPT in Latvian shall apply.
- 2.7. The Client, before entering into the Service Agreement, undertakes to familiarise himself/herself with the GPT, the relevant Provisions of Service, the Bank's "General Provisions for Processing Client Data" and the procedure specified in the Service Agreement, declares that he/she understands and agrees to the application of these GPT, the relevant Provisions of Service and the Bank's "General Provisions for Processing Client Data" in relations between the Parties.
- 2.8. The specific terms of each separate Service are set out in the relevant Provisions of Service and the Service Agreement.
- 2.9. The Service, which is not specified in the GPT and the Provisions of Service, is provided by the Bank to the Client on the basis of the GPT and a separate Service Agreement.
- 2.10. For the Service, which the Client has not yet used, but has expressed a wish to receive, the terms of the respective Service, together with the Service Agreement and/or the Service Application Form, shall be deemed to be the draft Service Agreement.
- 2.11. The Bank has the right to amend unilaterally the GPT, the Provisions of Service and Rates & Fees. The Bank notifies the Clients, in accordance with the procedures specified in the GPT, 2 (two) months prior to the change of the GPT, the Provisions of Service or the Rates & Fees by placing the relevant information at the Client Service Locations, on the Bank's website and/or by sending an appropriate notice in PNB Internetbanka.
- 2.12. For Clients who have an established business relationship with the Bank on the date of the announcement of amendments to the Provisions of Service and/or the Rates & Fees, the amendments shall also apply to the transactions concluded between the Parties that have started before and continue to be in effect at the time of the amendments, unless other agreement between the Parties has been signed. If the Client does not agree to the Bank's proposed amendments, the Client has the right, prior to their entry into force, to withdraw from all Service Agreements concluded between the Parties, which are affected by the announced amendments, by fulfilling all obligations arising from such Service Agreements. If the Client does not use the rights specified in this GPT clause, the Client is deemed to have agreed to the amendments. If before the entry into force of the amendments the Client requests a new Service, the new version of the GPT, the Provisions of Service and/or the Rates & Fees shall be applicable to the relationship between the parties at the time of the entry into force of the relevant amendments, provided that no other arrangement is specified.
- 2.13. The deadline specified in Clause 2.11 of GPT is not applicable and the Bank informs the Client of the amendments or additions 7 (seven) calendar days in advance if:
 - 2.13.1. the amendments or additions affect the following Provisions of Service: "Provisions for Term Deposits", "Provisions for Savings Account", "Provisions for Child's Savings Account", "Provisions for Safe Deposit Box Service" or "General Provisions for Processing Client Data";
 - 2.13.2. Rates & Fees are replenished with new services and/or new Provisions of Service are approved;
 - 2.13.3. amendments or additions are made in accordance with the amendments to the applicable regulatory enactments or in connection with the adoption of new regulatory enactments;
 - 2.13.4. amendments or additions are made in favour of the Clients, but if the Rates & Fees are amended in favour of the Client, the Bank is not obliged to inform the Client;
 - 2.13.5. amendments or additions to the Rates & Fees apply to Clients that are not Consumers.
- 2.14. All references to GPT, Provisions of Service, and Rates & Fees include a reference to these GPT, Provisions of Service, and Rates & Fees, with all their amendments and new versions.
- 2.15. The Bank is entitled to record telephone conversations with the Client and, if necessary, use these records as evidence for receiving Client's orders in resolution of disputes and in court. In order to implement the activities specified in this clause of GPT, the Bank is entitled to choose unilaterally the technical means for recording telephone conversations.

3. Procedures for Provision and Termination of Services

- 3.1. The Client can familiarise himself/herself with the Provisions of Service at any Client Service Location during the Bank's working hours, as well as on the Bank's website on the Internet. By signing any Service-related document (Service Application, Service Agreement, Payment Order, etc.), the Client confirms that he/she is familiar with the current GPT, the relevant Provisions of Service, the Bank's "General Provisions for Processing Client Data" and the Rates & Fees and agrees to receive the requested Service in accordance with them and the respective Service Agreement.
- 3.2. Service Agreements, Payment and other Client's orders, Client's submissions, applications and other documents may be signed on paper or as an Electronic Document with the Electronic Signature through the Remote Service, provided that the functionality and offered options of the respective Service allow the Client to submit them electronically to the Bank and/or to sign documents.
- 3.3. Service agreements and related documents signed with the Electronic Signature through the Remote Service are Electronic Documents. Such documents shall have the same effect as paper-based documents.
- 3.4. The Bank is entitled to request that a signature on any document submitted to the Bank is made in the presence of a representative of the Bank. If this is not possible or not feasible, the Bank has the right to request that the signature is certified by a notary or other official who is authorised to perform notarial functions, to confirm its authenticity.
- 3.5. The Bank is entitled to refuse to start a business relationship or to refuse to conclude a separate Service Agreement without explaining the reason for the refusal.
- 3.6. The Bank has the right to set additional requirements for the Client to receive or continue to receive the relevant Services, of which the Bank warns the Client 1 (one) month in advance, but if such additional requirements apply to the Service Agreement on Safe Deposit Box Rental – 7 (seven) calendar days in advance. If the Client does not fulfil the Bank's additional requirements, the Bank is entitled, without warning to the Client, to terminate the provision of the respective Services to the Client immediately. In this case, the relevant Service Agreement is deemed to be terminated upon the termination of the provision of the Service and the Client shall pay to the Bank immediately all Commission Fees and other charges payable to it for the provision of the relevant Service.
- 3.7. The Client has the right to derogate from the Service Agreement 1 (one) month in advance, by notifying the Bank in writing and fulfilling all obligations arising from the Service Agreement, unless otherwise stated in the GPT, the respective Provisions of Service or the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the above deadline, all outstanding obligations remain in force until they are properly and fully fulfilled.
- 3.8. If the Consumer concludes the Service Agreement through the Remote Service, he/she has the right to use the right of withdrawal within 14 (fourteen) calendar days in accordance with the applicable law.
- 3.9. The Bank has the right to withdraw from the Service Agreement unilaterally by warning the Client who is a Consumer at least 2 (two) months in advance, and 1 (one) month in advance if the Client is not a Consumer, unless otherwise provided in the relevant Provisions of Service or the Service Agreement and, if necessary, requesting early fulfilment of the Client's obligations. The Client is obliged to fulfil all obligations arising from the Service Agreement within the time period specified in the Bank's warning.
- 3.10. In the event of termination of the Service Agreement (regardless of the reasons for the withdrawal of the Parties), the Client authorises the Bank to directly debit from any Account (in first place from the Current Account) the funds necessary for the performance of the Client's obligations, Commission Fees and other charges due in accordance with the Bank's GPT, the Provisions of Service, and the Service Agreement.
- 3.11. The Bank is entitled to unilaterally suspend the provision of any or all Services to the Client temporarily or to completely terminate the provision of the Service to the Client (to terminate cooperation with the Client) immediately without any compensation for losses, by way of derogation from all or any Service Agreements concluded between the Parties and, requesting early fulfilment of the Client's obligations, if necessary, in the following cases:
 - 3.11.1. the Bank suspects or finds that the Client is involved in money laundering or terrorist financing or attempt of it;
 - 3.11.2. the Client or the authorised person of the Client, at the request of the Bank, has not provided the Bank with information and documents regarding its business operations, personal activities, third parties, beneficiaries, financial position and sources of funds or the information provided does not correspond to the Bank's request;
 - 3.11.3. the Bank suspects or finds that the information provided by the Client is false and/or does not correspond to the actual circumstances;
 - 3.11.4. the Client's Account is blocked or the Account is suspended in any other way when the Bank executes the decisions of state institutions and officials in accordance with the requirements of laws and regulations or according to the orders, requests, instructions, decisions of the competent institutions;
 - 3.11.5. the Client has violated the GPT, the Provisions of Service and/or Service Agreement, or has provided false declarations;
 - 3.11.6. the Client fails to fulfil obligations to the Bank arising from the Service Agreement concluded between the Parties, or the Client fails to fulfil his/her obligations to any related company of the Bank providing financial services;
 - 3.11.7. the Bank suspects that fraud has occurred or that the Client permits legally punishable, unfair or unethical behaviour or if the Bank has reason to believe that further cooperation with the Client is adversely affecting the Bank's honour, dignity or reputation;

- 3.11.8. the Bank has reason to believe that the Remote Service has been used by an unauthorised person;
- 3.11.9. the Bank has reason to believe that the Client uses the Services on behalf of and/or in the interests of third parties who are not identified in accordance with the requirements of the GPT;
- 3.11.10. the Bank suspects that the death of the Client, who is a natural person, or the death of the legal representative of the Client, who is a legal person, has or representation rights have been lost or the Client, who is a legal person, has been liquidated;
- 3.11.11. it is determined by the necessity of fulfilling the requirements of financial institutions or organisations involved in the execution of a transaction submitted by the Client;
- 3.11.12. the Bank suspects that an operation/transaction may directly or indirectly infringe the sanctions imposed by the Republic of Latvia, the European Union, the United Nations or other international organisation of which the Republic of Latvia is a member, or individual countries;
- 3.11.13. operation/transaction is in conflict with the Bank's regulatory documents in the field of risk management;
- 3.11.14. at the Bank's discretion, it is necessary to ensure the Bank's right to financial collateral (including sale of financial collateral);
- 3.11.15. at the discretion of the Bank, one or more of the Client default of liabilities may have occurred or could happen.
- 3.12. The Bank does not individually notify the Client, other than a Consumer, about the cases specified in Clause 3.11 of the GPT, but the Client, who is a Consumer, is warned by the Bank in the cases and within the time limits specified in the Applicable Law.
- 3.13. The Bank is entitled to offer Priority Account Service to the Client, regardless of the GPT and the relevant Provisions of Service. The Bank is entitled to unilaterally make changes to the Priority Account Service proposals and also to exclude the Client from the Priority Account Service proposal, informing the Client within the time limits specified in the Applicable Law. The Client has the right at any time to refuse from Priority Account Service, which the Bank applied in accordance with the procedure specified in this clause of the GPT, by submitting a written application to the Bank or sending a text message to the Bank via PNB Internetbanka.
- 3.14. The Client may use only those Services, which are intended for the Client according to the Client's residence. In the event of a change in the Client's residence, the Bank has the right to terminate certain Services that are not intended for a specific Client's residence, informing the Client thereof accordingly in accordance with the Applicable Law.

4. Identification of the Client and its Representatives

- 4.1. The Bank carries out the identification and due diligence of the Client in accordance with the requirements of the Applicable Law, GPT and other Bank's regulatory documents.
- 4.2. Before entering into a business relationship (i.e. before the provision of the Service/Service Agreement) and/or in case of changes in the Client's personal data, and at the request of the Bank, the Client must submit the documents and information requested by the Bank confirming the Client's identity and necessary for the clarification of the Client's information, as specified in the Applicable Law. Client identification and due diligence is carried out on the basis of originals of documents presented to the Bank or their derivatives, which are legally valid in the Republic of Latvia. In addition, the Bank has the right to ask the person to present the original identity document. Derivatives of Client's documents submitted to/created by the Bank shall not be returned to the Client and are stored in accordance with the requirements of the Applicable Law.
- 4.3. In addition to Clause 4.2 of the GPT, the Client is obligated to submit to the Bank a fully completed and signed Client Questionnaire and other documents stated in GPT and the Bank's regulatory documents. The Bank is entitled to request to update the information specified in the Client Questionnaire and/or to draw up a new Client Questionnaire at any time.
- 4.4. The Bank, having received the necessary documents for the Client identification and Client Questionnaire filled and signed by the Client, and provided that the Commission Fee has been paid, if provided for in the Rates & Fees, shall initiate verification of the documents submitted by the Client immediately, which is carried out for 10 (ten) Bank's Business Days for the residents of the Republic of Latvia, but in individual cases longer, and for 30 (thirty) Bank's business days to non-residents of the Republic of Latvia, but in individual cases longer, and when the verification is fully over, the decision to provide the specified Service to the Client shall be made in accordance with the procedure specified in the Bank's regulatory documents.
- 4.5. The Client is obliged to prepare a signature specimen of the Client and/or the Client's representative/representatives, which is certified as prescribed in Clause 4.6 of the GPT. If the Client – a legal person – uses a stamp in the relations with third parties, then a specimen of the Client's stamp shall also be prepared. The Bank has the right to request the Client to draw up a Signature Specimen Card at the Bank's Client Service Locations.
- 4.6. Specimens of the signature and stamp impression of the Client, the Client's representative/s, if any, shall be certified by a Bank's representative in accordance with the requirements of the Bank or a sworn notary or other official who has the right to perform notarial functions.
- 4.7. The Bank is entitled to take other measures to fully identify the Client or his/her representative, obtain information about his/her economic activity or professional activity and beneficiaries.
- 4.8. The Bank is entitled to make derivatives of identity documents and other documents submitted by the Client (copy, scan and otherwise technically reproduce) and, if necessary, to make and store the copies.
- 4.9. The Bank has the right to perform repeated identification and due diligence of the Client and its representative at any time, and the Client is obliged to do everything necessary, including to submit additional documents and information requested by the Bank and, at the Bank's request, to arrive to the Bank in person in order to enable the Bank to complete the identification and due diligence activities.

- 4.10. If the previous Client's identity document has expired, the Client is obliged to present to the Bank in due time an identity document (passport, identity card, residence permit issued in the Republic of Latvia or other European Union member state) or submit a copy thereof, the conformity of which with the original has been certified by a notary or other official who has the right to perform notarial functions. The Bank is entitled to carry out the verification of the data of the Client's documents in databases to determine the Client's residence, without separately informing the Client in advance, as well as withholding the Commission Fee specified in the Rates & Fees according to the new residence of the Client, if any. The Bank is entitled to change (determine) the Client's residence in accordance with the information received, i.e. to classify the Client as a resident or non-resident of the Republic of Latvia, before performing the Client's analysis and withholding the fee specified in the Rates & Fees, if any, and classifying the Client as a VIP Client, if the Client meets the quantitative, liability and quality criteria as defined in the Bank's "Regulations for Classification of VIP Customer Segment".
- 4.11. For Clients – natural persons, the power of attorney submitted to the Bank must be drawn up in accordance with the requirements of the Bank, with a certification by a notary or other official who is authorised to perform notarial functions that the document is authentic and the person concerned has the capacity and ability to issue it/make it. The Bank is entitled to offer to the Client the relevant power of attorney in the presence of the Bank's representative, withholding the corresponding Commission Fee from the Client. The authorised person acting on behalf of the Client must present a power of attorney in the Bank stating explicitly the rights to engage in the operation/transaction that the authorised representative has initiated. The Bank has the right to demand that the Client personally enters into legal relations with the Bank and concludes the Service Agreement.
- 4.12. On behalf of the Client – a legal entity transactions are concluded and actions on behalf of the Client are performed by a legal representative/s, whose right of representation is registered in the registers administered by the Register of Enterprises of the Republic of Latvia or in the relevant official registers of other jurisdictions, or persons acting on behalf of the Client on the basis of an authorisation or other documents supporting representation. The power of attorney provided to the bank must explicitly indicate the right to perform the operation/transaction that the authorised representative has initiated.
- 4.13. For Clients – legal entities, the powers of attorney to be submitted to the Bank must be drawn up in accordance with the requirements specified in the Applicable Law regarding the presentation of power of attorney. The Bank is entitled to request that the submitted power of attorney has a certification of a notary or another person who has the right to perform the notarial function stating that the document is authentic and the person concerned was entitled to issue it on behalf of the Client. The Bank is entitled to offer to the Client the relevant power of attorney in the presence of the Bank's representative, withholding the corresponding Commission Fee from the Client.
- 4.14. The Bank has the right to refuse to accept the documents certifying the authorisation or representation of the Client if the rights specified therein are not clearly and unequivocally formulated or if the Bank has doubts about the validity or authenticity of the submitted documents.
- 4.15. A document drawn up and/or issued abroad must be legally valid, i.e., have a certification of a notary or other person authorised to perform notarial functions and legalised in the cases and in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Applicable Law. If the Client submits a document which is not in Latvian, Russian or English, the Bank is entitled to ask the Client to submit a translation of the document, which is certified by a notary or another person who has the right to perform notarial functions.
- 4.16. The Client's documents submitted to the Bank shall be deemed valid until the Client has submitted to the Bank a written withdrawal of these documents or their term has expired, irrespective of the information available in the public registers or other official information sources. The Bank shall not be liable for losses or expenses of the Client if the documents have expired but the Bank has not been notified in writing.
- 4.17. The Client is obliged to provide the Bank with all relevant information and documents drawn up in accordance with the requirements of the Bank, immediately after they have been changed. If the Client does not provide the Bank with amended documents certifying authorisation and representation in a timely manner, the Bank is entitled to completely or partially refuse the provision of the Services to the Client immediately. The Bank has the right to suspend the provision of the Services if the Bank becomes aware of changes in the persons who have the right to represent the Client or their term of representation or authorisation has expired.
- 4.18. The Bank is not obliged to follow the changes in the Enterprise Register of the Republic of Latvia or other official state register and official registers of other countries regarding the persons who have the right to represent the Client on behalf of the Client – a legal entity. The Bank has the right to believe that the Client's representative is the person indicated by the Client in the documents submitted to the Bank and identified by the Bank. The Bank is not liable for the Client's losses or expenses incurred by the Client or any third person if the right of representation of the Client's representative has expired or changed, but the Client has not notified the Bank thereof in writing.
- 4.19. If the Client is a minor person or person with a limitation of legal capacity, then the Client's representative must submit a document confirming the right to perform operations/transactions on behalf of and in the interests of this person.
- 4.20. In the event of an inheritance disclosure, the heir shall submit to the Bank documents evidencing of his/her heir's right to the inheritance left by the Client and identification documents. If the Bank has doubts about the authenticity and legality of the documents submitted by the Client's heir, the Bank shall be entitled to verify the documents submitted at the expense of the heir.

- 4.21. The Bank has the right to impose additional requirements to the presentation of Client's documents, the content and procedures for submission thereof, informing the Client thereof.
- 4.22. Ensuring effective Client identification, the Bank has an identification tool – the Single Voice Password, the Voice Password. Before providing information on the Client's Accounts and operations performed on them by phone, the Bank, as one of the measures, has determined the need to identify the Client by the Single Voice Password, the Voice Password. The Client is obliged to keep the Single Voice Password, the Voice Password in secret and not to disclose it to third parties, but in case of disclosure thereof or if the Client suspects its disclosure, to notify the Bank thereof immediately. From the moment of receiving a notification, the Single Voice Password, the Voice Password shall be considered invalid and can no longer be used. The Bank does not assume responsibility for the consequences of use of the Client's Single Voice Password, Voice Password by unauthorised persons. The Client must take precautions to ensure that the Single Voice Password, the Voice Password does not end up in the possession of unauthorised persons.
- 4.23. The Client, using PNB Internetbanka, has the opportunity to send to the Bank a scanned copy of an updated identity document before the expiry date of the identity document and/or scanned copies of documents certifying economic activity.
- 4.24. The Client identification, using the Remote Services, shall take place according the relevant Provisions of Service.

5. Rates & Fees and Bank Charges

- 5.1. Commission Fees, interest payable to the Bank and other charges related to the Services provided by the Bank are specified in the Rates & Fees, the respective Service Agreements and/or the Bank's and the Client's separate written agreement on the amount of the Commission Fee and the payment procedures. The Bank may, but is not obliged, observing the procedure laid down in the GPT, to set Rates & Fees, which differ from the standard Rates & Fees and which are not published on the Bank's website.
- 5.2. The Client can familiarise with the Rates & Fees in the Bank's Client Service Locations and/or on the Bank's website at www.pnbbanka.eu.
- 5.3. - 5.4. If the Consumer refuses to receive all or a separate Service, the Client shall pay the Commission Fee, which the Bank withdraws for the provision of such Service on a regular basis, until termination of the respective Service Agreement. If such Commission Fee is paid in advance, the Bank shall reimburse it in proportion to the time, when the Service was not used.
- 5.5. The fulfilment of the Client's obligations arising from the Service Agreements shall take place in the following order: first, the Bank's claims for the payment of the expenses provided for in or related to the Service Agreement, Commission Fees and other ancillary claims, with the exception of interest and contractual penalties, and, second, unpaid interest, and, third, the unpaid authorised credit limit, and fourth, contractual penalties.
- 5.6. The Client is obliged to pay to the Bank additional expenses that are not included in the Rates & Fees but were necessary to provide the Services in accordance with any order of the Client. For any Services that are not included in the Rates & Fees but were provided at the request of the Client, the Bank is entitled to set a Commission Fee at its discretion. Such Commission Fee shall be effective from the moment Client receives a relevant notification from the Bank.
- 5.7. The Bank is entitled to deduct the Commission Fee for the Payment Service from the amount of money sent to the Client before it is transferred to the Client's Account. In this case, the full amount of the Payment and the Commission Fee charged for the Service are indicated in the information provided to the Client separately.
- 5.8. If according to the Applicable Law the Bank has the obligation or the right to withhold taxes, fees or similar charges from any Client's Payments, Commission Fees or other funds, then these payments shall be made using the Client's funds by writing off the relevant amounts from any Account (in first place from the Current Account) opened for the Client with the Bank.
- 5.9. Bank's currency exchange rates and interest rates on loans are not included in the Rates & Fees and are determined at the time of provision of the respective Service. If the Service Agreement also specifies the LIBOR interest rate which changes (is revised) during the term of the agreement and in accordance with the terms of the agreement, in cases when this LIBOR rate at the date of its change is less than 0 (zero), the Bank sets this LIBOR interest rate for the next period in the amount of 0 (zero) per cent and it shall be valid until the next date of its revision in accordance with the relevant Service Agreement.
- 5.10. If the Bank has changed the Client's residence in accordance with Clause 4.10 of the GPT, the Bank has the right to apply the relevant Rates & Fees to the Services provided to the Client, depending on the residence determined for the Client, unilaterally without notifying the Client.

- 5.11. The Client who uses a set of Services is entitled to stop using the set of Services and continue using a Service included in the set separately if the use of a particular Service is offered separately. Terms of a particular Service and standard Rates&Fees are applicable to a Service that is not used under a set of Services.¹
- 5.12. By signing any document regarding receipt or use of any Service or submitting any Payment Order, the Client irrevocably authorises the Bank to directly debit any funds necessary for payment of any debt to the Bank and/or Commission Fee and additional expenses for payment from any Client Account (at the Bank's discretion) opened with the Bank, including allowing an Overdraft of the Card Credit respectively increasing the amount of the loan granted to the Client, as well as from the overdraft account linked to the Current Account within the limit of the granted overdraft. In doing so, the Bank shall be entitled to carry out the conversion of funds according to the currency exchange rate determined on the day of performance of the Bank's operation, if necessary. The Bank shall charge the Service Fee and additional expenses at the time of execution of the relevant Bank operation or according to other procedure, if it is provided for in the Rates & Fees or the Service Agreement.
- 5.13. All finances and financial instruments that are or will be available on the Account are pledged in favour of the Bank as financial collateral within the meaning of the "Financial Collateral Law" of the Republic of Latvia to secure any liabilities of the Client, including the forthcoming liabilities arising from the Service. If the Client defaults his/her obligations in any way, the Bank shall have the following rights depending on the nature of the financial collateral:
- 5.13.1. if these are funds, then to proceed as described in Clause 5.12 of the GPT;
- 5.13.2. if these are financial instruments, then to sell them, including in parts, including to dispose of financial instruments in favour of itself for the market price (financial instruments are sold in quantities to satisfy the Bank's claims towards the Client, while respecting existing market practices (related to the minimum amount of financial instruments sold/purchased on the financial market)) by diverting the proceeds for the fulfilment of the Client's outstanding obligations towards the Bank.
- 5.14. The Bank shall be entitled to apply to the Client a relevant Commission Fee for Priority Account Service, if indicated in the Rates & Fees. The Bank shall calculate the Commission Fee for the Priority Account Service on a monthly basis on the last Bank's Business Day, and the Commission Fee shall be debited directly in accordance with the Rates & Fees and Bank's regulatory documents from any Account opened with the Bank (in first place from the Current Account), the Bank shall be entitled carry out the conversion of funds according to the currency exchange rate determined on the day of performance of the Bank's operation, if necessary.

- 6.29. By acting in accordance with Clauses 6.25, 6.26 and 6.27 of GPT, the Bank shall not reimburse the Customer for any expenses, damages or lost profits related to the conversion, the delayed execution of the operation with assets or changes in its terms.

6¹ Property of Third Parties

- 6¹.1. The property of third parties held with the Bank shall not be included in the list of the property of the Bank. On 31 May 2021, the Bank published the announcement in "Latvijas Vēstnesis" – the official gazette of the Republic of Latvia – inviting third parties to receive their property (financial instruments and monetary funds related to the financial instruments corporate events that took place after 15 August 2019) by 30 November 2021. This section stipulates the procedure for handling the following property of third parties held with the Bank.
- 6¹.2. The Bank shall be entitled to demand that third parties cover the expenses incurred under maintenance / alienation of their property according to the Tariffs, while the third parties shall have the obligation to indemnify the Bank against these expenses.
- 6¹.3. The funds not claimed by third parties shall be transferred by the Bank to the custody with other credit institution registered in the Republic of Latvia (hereinafter — the Payment Credit Institution) at the Bank's discretion, and such transfer shall be performed in the manner as follows:
 - 6¹.3.1. the Bank shall send such third parties a notice on transferring their funds to the custody with the Payment Credit Institution in the Bank's online banking system PNB Internetbanka and shall publish an announcement in the media and the official gazette "Latvijas Vēstnesis".

- 6¹.3.2. the Payment Credit Institution shall charge payment for custody of the transferred funds according to its own tariffs from the amount of funds due to third parties and which have been transferred to the Payment Credit Institution by the Bank;
- 6¹.3.3. third party shall forfeit the right of claim against the Payment Credit Institution, if such third party fails to receive the funds due to the same within 10 years. Such funds shall be due to the state as ownerless property.
- 6¹.4. The financial instruments not repossessed by third parties within the term set forth in clause 6¹.1. of the GPT (and within the term set by the Bank, if applicable) shall be sold by the Bank at public auctions according to the procedure stated below:
- 6¹.4.1. the Bank shall initiate the sale of the financial instruments of the respective third party after the Bank will have completed the review regarding the respective third party in accordance with the requirements of applicable legal acts on the prevention of money laundering and terrorism and proliferation financing;
- 6¹.4.2. if the financial instrument is admitted to a regulated market (stock exchange) and there are no hindrances for making and executing such financial instrument sale transaction at the regulated market (stock exchange), the Bank shall submit the financial instrument sale order at the regulated market (stock exchange). Such way of selling the financial instrument shall be deemed equal to sale at a public auction;
- 6¹.4.3. If the financial instrument cannot be sold in accordance with the procedure set forth in clause 6¹.4.2. of the GPT, the Bank shall sell the financial instrument at public auctions, applying the following rules of public auctions:
- a) the Bank shall publish an announcement on sale of financial instruments in the official gazette "Latvijas Vēstnesis" (hereinafter — the Sales Announcement);
 - b) persons willing to participate in the auction can familiarize with the provisions of the sales and purchase agreement (SPA) (including the settlement procedure) by approaching the Bank before the end of the auction period;
 - c) the Bank shall enter into the financial instrument SPA with the highest bidder that meets the requirements set forth in the Sales Announcement;
 - d) the Bank shall be entitled to reject conclusion of the SPA without explaining the reasons for the same, also following the assessment of the buyer's risks in accordance with the requirements of applicable legal acts on the prevention of money laundering and terrorism and proliferation financing;
 - e) if the Bank rejects conclusion of the SPA with the highest bidder, the SPA shall be signed with the next highest bidder. If there is no such bidder, the auction shall be deemed void;
- 6¹.4.4. If the issuer of the financial instruments has defaulted on its liabilities or the market value of the financial instruments is equal to zero, and the financial instruments cannot be sold at public auctions, the Bank shall be entitled to make all possible efforts to write the financial instruments off the balance sheet. The financial instruments can be written off only after such financial instruments are written off the Bank's client account in the respective depository. This being the case, the third party shall have the obligation to indemnify the Bank against any expenses related to such write-off as per the Tariffs. The Bank shall assume no responsibility for any losses incurred by third parties due to write-off of the financial instruments.
- 6¹.5. If the financial instruments cannot be sold at public auctions, the Bank may transfer such financial instruments to custody in the manner as follows:
- 6¹.5.1. the Bank may transfer the financial instruments to the custody with the person at the Bank's own discretion, e.g., a credit institution, investment brokerage company, or sworn notary registered in the Republic of Latvia (hereinafter — the Custodian) on the basis of a written agreement;
- 6¹.5.2. the Bank sends third parties a notice on transferring their funds to the custody with the Custodian in the Bank's online banking system PNB Internetbanka (or, if the third party does not have access to online banking service, the notice will be sent by post) and publishes an announcement in the media and the official gazette "Latvijas Vēstnesis";
- 6¹.5.3. the third parties shall be charged for custody of the financial instruments at the Custodian's tariffs at the moment such third parties submit an order for receipt of the financial instruments to the Custodian;
- 6¹.5.4. if third parties fail to repossess their financial instruments within ten years after the financial instruments have been transferred to the Custodian, the third parties shall forfeit the right of claim to such financial instruments. Given the lapse of the prescriptive period of the financial instruments of the said third parties, those financial instruments shall be due to the state as ownerless property.
- 6¹.6. From the moment the Bank transfers the Property of Third Parties to the Payment Credit Institution or the Custodian in accordance with the procedure set forth in clauses 6¹.3. un 6¹.5. herein, the third party shall assume the risk of default on the part of the Payment Credit Institution or the Custodian and the risk of the Payment Credit Institution or the Custodian becoming insolvent. The Bank shall assume no responsibility for losses that might be incurred by third parties due to actions (omissions) on the part of the Payment Credit Institution or the Custodian.
- 6¹.7. The third parties whose property is held with the Bank shall be subject to provisions on personal data processing and confidentiality laid down in the GPT.

7. Liability

- 7.1. The Parties are responsible for failure to fulfil their obligations or improper fulfilment of the obligations arising from and affecting all the Bank's Services, including those, the regulation of which is not included in the GPT and the Provisions of Service.
- 7.2. The Bank is responsible for the provision of qualitative Services that comply with the GPT, the Provisions of Service, the Service Agreement and the Applicable Law.

- 7.3. The Bank shall be liable for the Client's losses only in case the damage is caused by the Bank's malicious intent or gross negligence. In the case of malicious intent or gross negligence, the Bank shall compensate the Client only for the direct damage to the Client.
- 7.4. The Bank is not responsible for the non-fulfilment of all or part of its obligations, if such default is due to circumstances out of control of the Bank, including wars, terrorism, natural disasters, fires, explosions, civil unrest, strikes, acts issued by state institutions, unlawful actions of third parties, failures, interruptions or errors in computer or other communications, default or errors of the Payment Processing Centre. The Bank is not liable for services provided by third parties through mediation of the Bank.
- 7.5. The Bank is not liable for damages if it is determined that the signature and the seal impression of the Client and/or the Client's representative on the documents submitted to the Bank are forged, and if the person who has signed the document submitted to the Bank/has submitted a Payment Order at the time of signing/submission was not entitled to represent the Client, and in this case, this person undertakes, in addition to the Client, all obligations arising from the signed document/submitted Payment Order in full and is responsible for their execution.
- 7.6. The Bank is responsible for actions performed by the Bank's employees during working hours insofar as the Bank's employees have acted within the scope of their duties or authorisations.
- 7.7. The Bank shall not be liable for the Client's losses or other additional expenses incurred by the Client as a result of the provision of the Service by the Bank to the Client, in accordance with the GPT, the Provisions of Service, the Service Agreement and other documents binding on the Client.
- 7.8. The Client shall be responsible for the operations and transactions initiated and performed by him/her, the completeness and truthfulness of the information specified in Payment Orders submitted to the Bank using any means and in any form, as well as the legality of operations/transactions performed by him/her.
- 7.9. The Client shall be liable for any losses incurred as a result of the failure to inform the Bank in a timely manner about any changes in the name, change of personal data, change of status, change of address, changes in rights of representation or signature, or any other facts, which are important in the mutual relations of the Parties. Similarly, the Client shall be liable for any losses incurred to him/her or the Bank, due to the lack of legal capacity of the Client, his/her representatives or other third parties, unless this has been previously notified to the Bank in writing.
- 7.10. The Client is responsible for the proper and safe storage of the PIN code, the Electronic Identification Data and the Payment Instrument. The Client must report to the Bank immediately, if any third parties have become aware of or have access to (even if the Client only suspects it) the PIN code, the Electronic Identification Data, Payment Instruments, Authorisation Elements or the Password and/or Payment Instrument have been compromised. The Client may inform the Bank also by the Bank's round-the-clock telephone line for Client reports: +(371) 67041100.
- 7.11. Unless the GPT or the Provisions of Service provide otherwise, the Client shall be liable for any documents approved with the PIN-code, Electronic Signature and operations/transactions performed until the moment, when the Bank receives the Client's notification (in accordance with the procedure specified in Clause 7.10 of the GPT) on the loss of PIN Code, Electronic Identification Data or the Payment Instrument or compromising of the Authorisation Element and/or the Password and/or the Payment Instrument.
- 7.12. The Client, in accordance with the GPT and the Provisions of Service, is responsible for all the actions performed by the Client and/or the person to whom the Client has granted the right to use the Remote Services (by handing over the Client's Electronic Identification Data and Authorisation Elements) when using the Remote Service.
- 7.13. The Client shall not be entitled to compensation up to 150 (one hundred fifty) euro, which have been incurred as a result of Unauthorised Payments due to a loss, theft or other unlawful appropriation of the Payment Instrument, or if the Client had failed to ensure secure storage of the Payment Instrument, Electronic Identification Data, Authorisation Element, PIN code and thus allowed for an opportunity for somebody to misappropriate the Payment Instrument. Provisions of this clause do not apply to losses incurred after the Client based on Clause 7.10 of GPT has informed the Bank about a disappearance loss of the Payment Instrument or about third parties acquiring the Payment Instrument, except for cases, when the Client has acted in an unlawful manner himself/herself.
- 7.14. The Client is not entitled to claim compensation from the Bank due to the execution of an Unauthorised Payment, if the Client or the Client's representative (including, but not limited to, the Cardholder and/or the User of the Remote Service) has acted illegally or intentionally (deliberately) or has failed to fulfil any of these obligations due to gross negligence:
 - 7.14.1. the obligation to notify the Bank and/or the relevant authority specified in the Provisions of Services immediately as soon as he/she becomes aware that the Payment instrument has been lost, stolen or otherwise misappropriated or unauthorised use has taken place;
 - 7.14.2. the obligation of the Client to take the measures necessary to keep the personalised security elements of the Payment Instrument in safety.
- 7.15. The Client shall assume responsibility for any and all losses incurred in connection with Unauthorised Payments, if:
 - 7.15.1. the Client has used the Payment Instrument for fraudulent purposes;
 - 7.15.2. the Client has deliberately or out of gross negligence failed to comply with any of the GPT provisions concerning the safe use and safekeeping of the Payment Instrument.
- 7.16. The Client shall be liable for the truthfulness, completeness, accuracy and timely submission of the information and documents provided to the Bank. If the Client fails to comply with his/her obligation to notify the Bank, the Bank shall believe that the information provided to it is correct and the Bank shall not be liable for the damage caused to the Client or third parties due to the failure to provide information. The Client shall be liable to reimburse the Bank for the
